Subject: Clinical Genetics – October 2010 Exam Session

This is official notice that the exam date for the CSMLS Clinical Genetics National Exam will take place on Tuesday, October 26, 2009 (not the previously circulated date of October 19, 2009).

This change is due to severe disruptions that will be experienced in Vancouver, as a result of the 2010 Winter Olympics.

The examination handbook and website will reflect this change.
