Topic: The World of Travel Medicine

Marlene Burrows is a Nurse Practitioner. She received her Bachelor of Science in Nursing from BCIT in 2003 and her Master's of Nursing-Nurse Practitioner (Family) from the University of British Columbia in 2008.

Marlene has a broad scope of practice in nursing reflected in her three positions. Currently, she teaches part time at the School of Nursing at Langara College, and is Co-Founder of PRIMED Educational Associates which provides preparatory courses for students preparing to write their RN licensing exam. In addition, Marlene works in advanced practice as a Nurse Practitioner in the field of Travel Medicine. Here she consults patients who are travelling to various areas throughout the world, either for pleasure or work purposes. Marlene educates clients to reduce their risk of injury and illness during their travels. This includes recommending vaccinations, prescribing antimalarial pills and antibiotics to ensure client's stay as healthy as possible.
